

Head Coach of Pistol Shooting

The Finnish Shooting Sport Federation (FSSF) is seeking a new head coach for pistol shooting disciplines (ISSF-disciplines).

The Head Coach is responsible for planning, directing and following up the London 2012 Olympic Project of Pistol Shooting.

The Head Coach is also responsible for the operative coaching work with The Finnish National Pistol Team in national, international training camps competitions, etc. She/he is leading the expert groups, developing the training and competition venues and our schooling and coaching system.

We are waiting for large and wide knowledge and skills of elite pistol shooting and coaching.
